

In 1800, 95% of the world lived in extreme poverty.

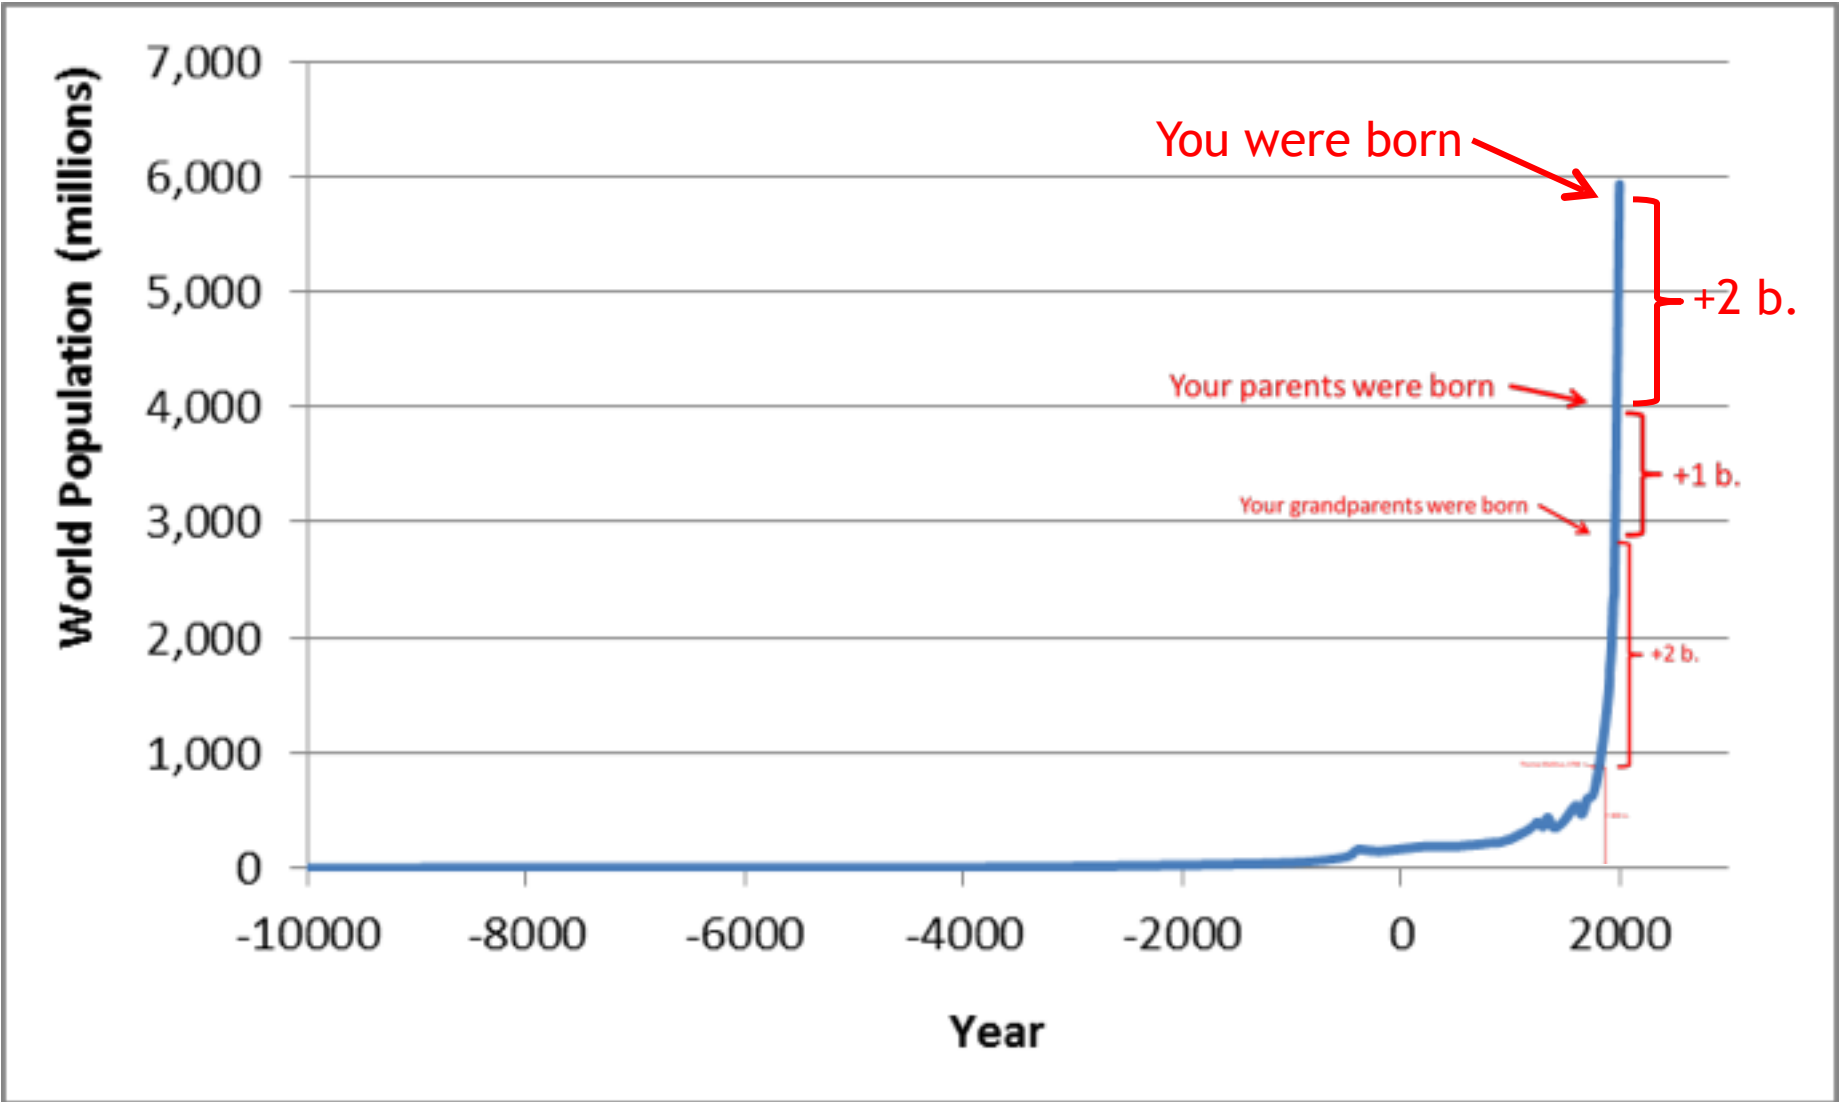

Data source: US Census Bureau

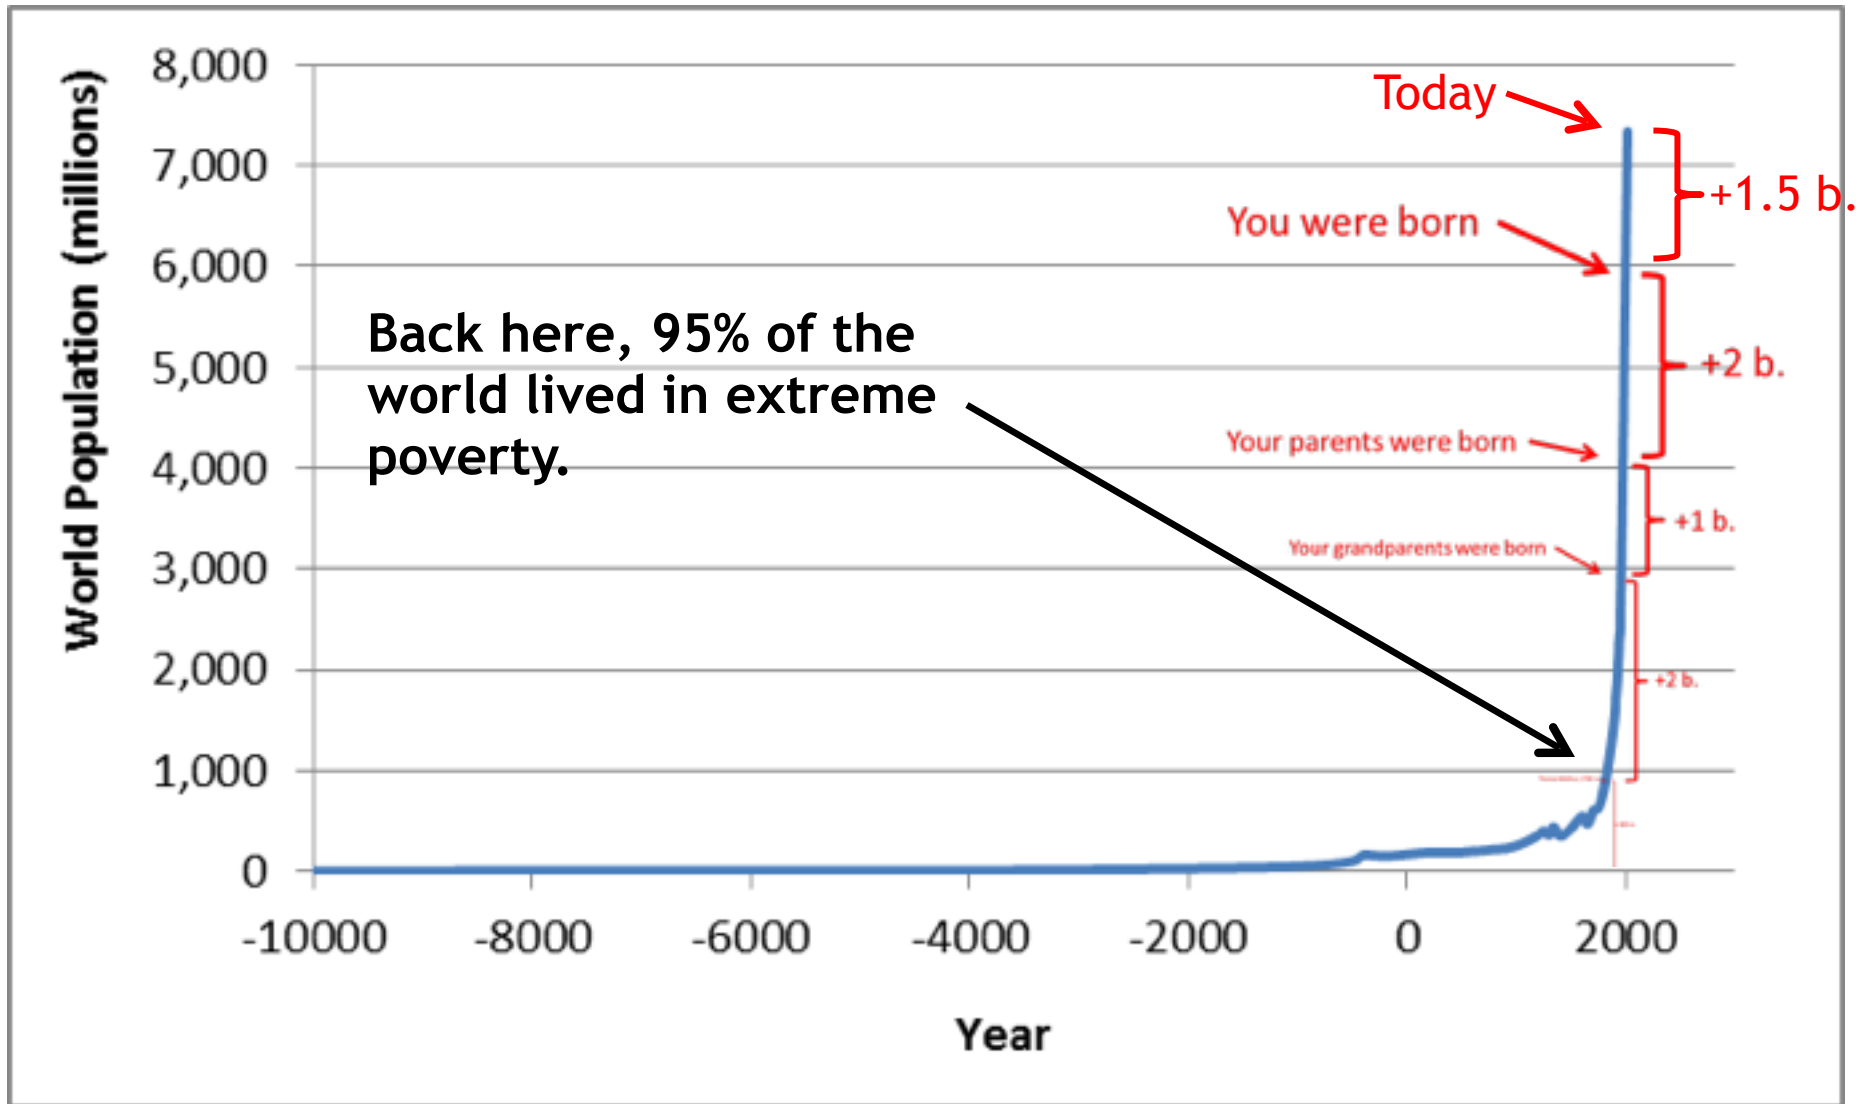

Data source: US Census Bureau

Data source: US Census Bureau

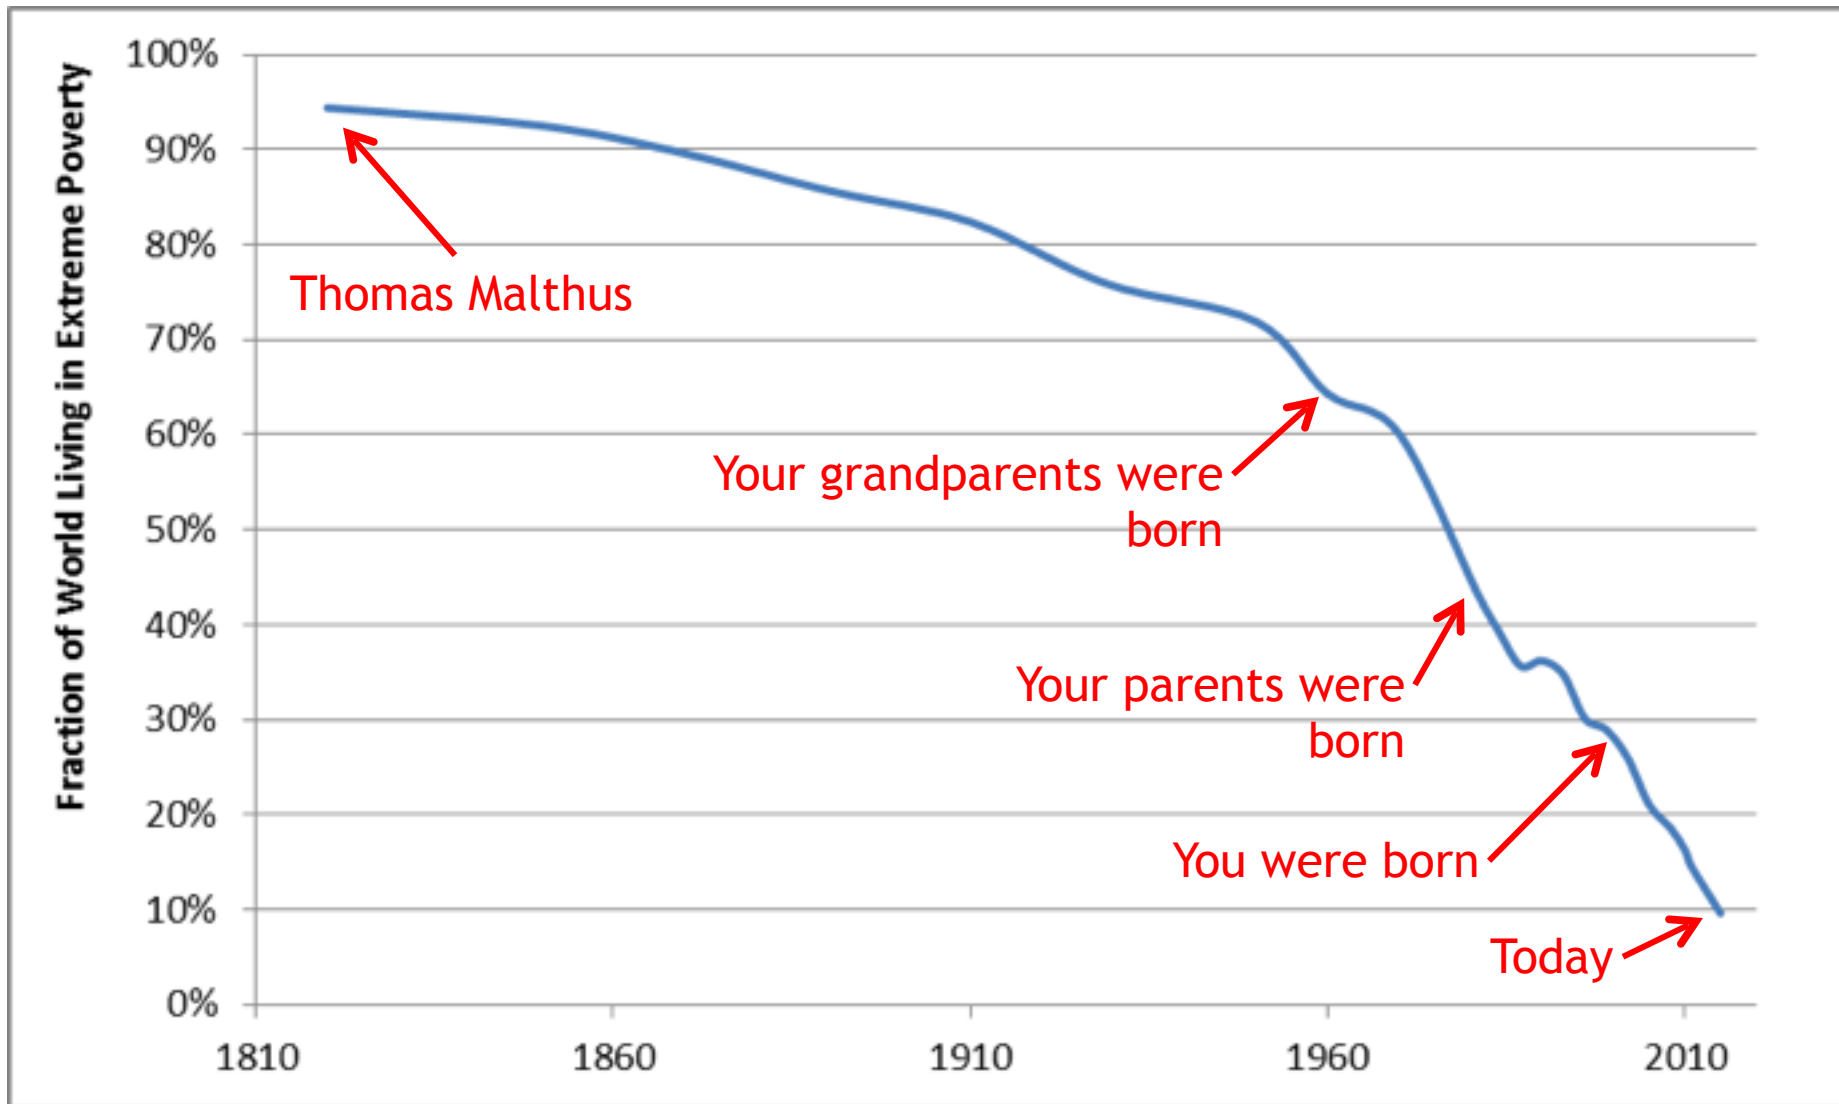

Data source: US Census Bureau

Data source: US Census Bureau

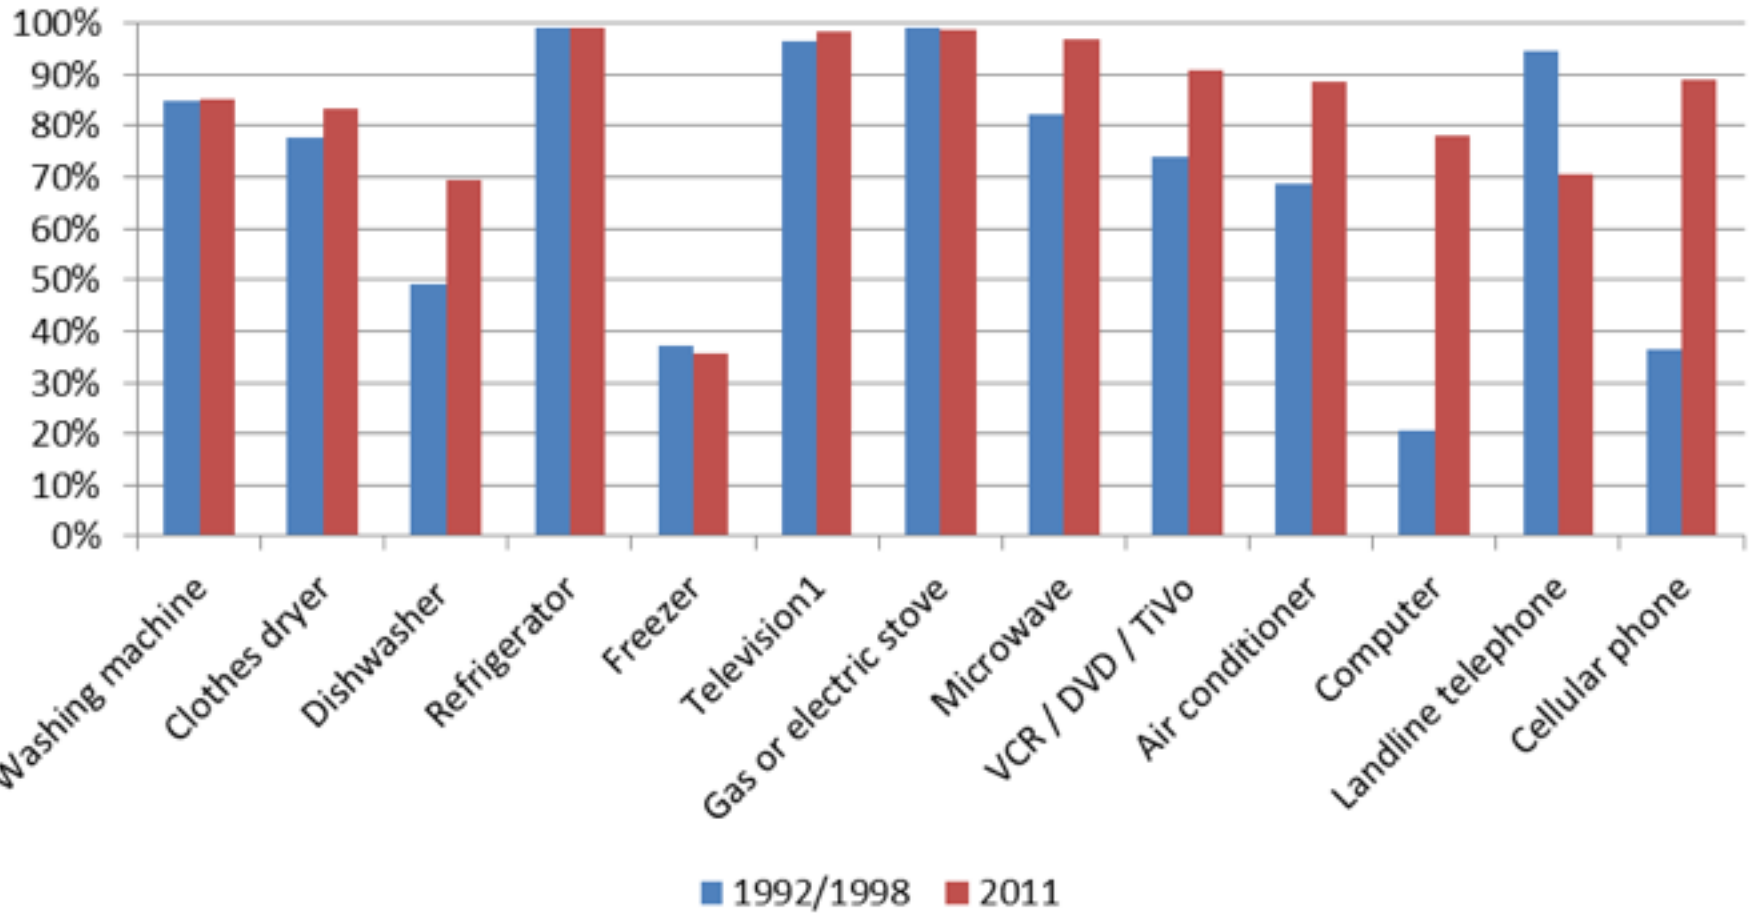

What happened with world poverty?

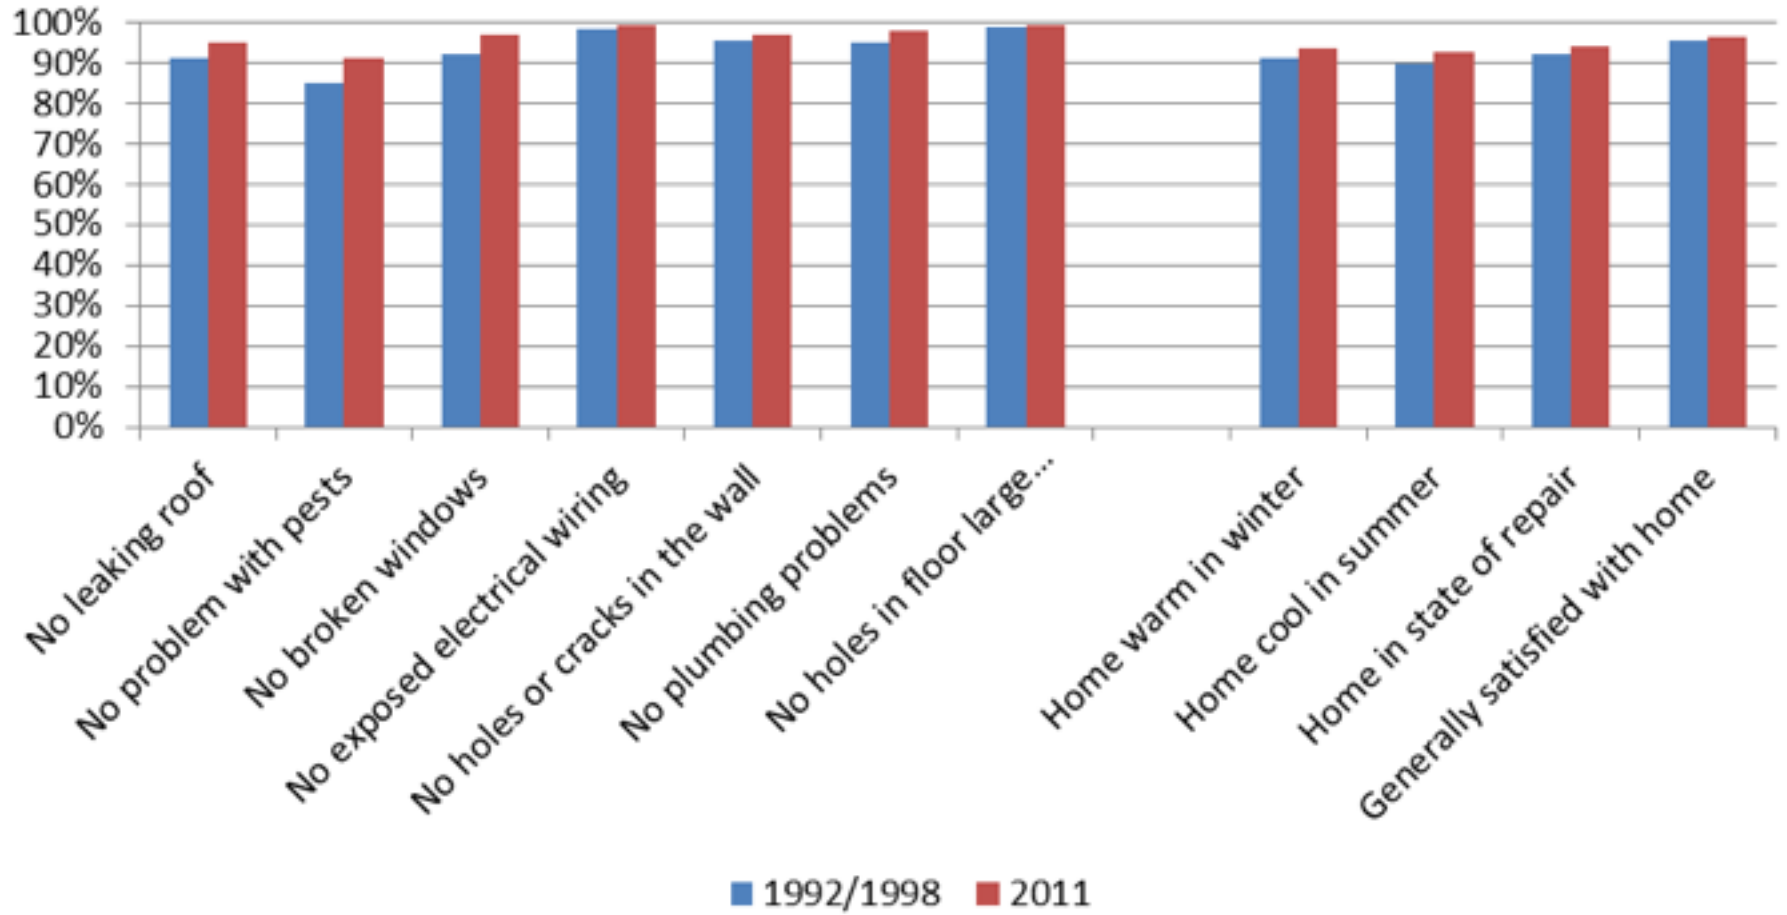

Data source: World Bank

Appliances and Electronic Goods

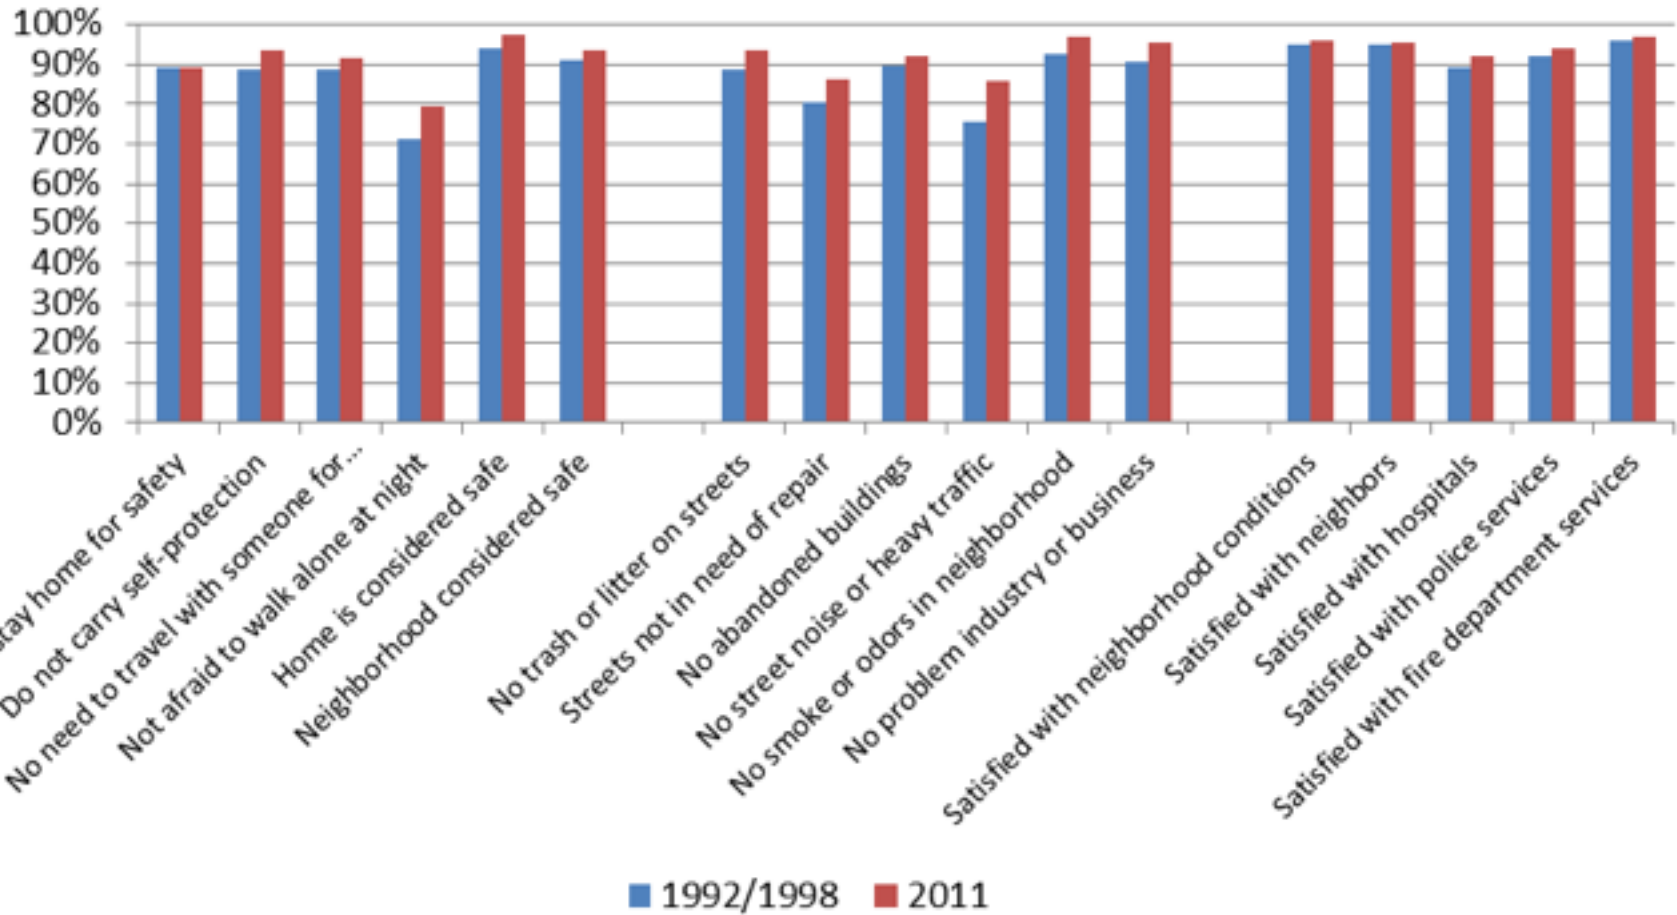

Data source: US Census Bureau

Housing Conditions

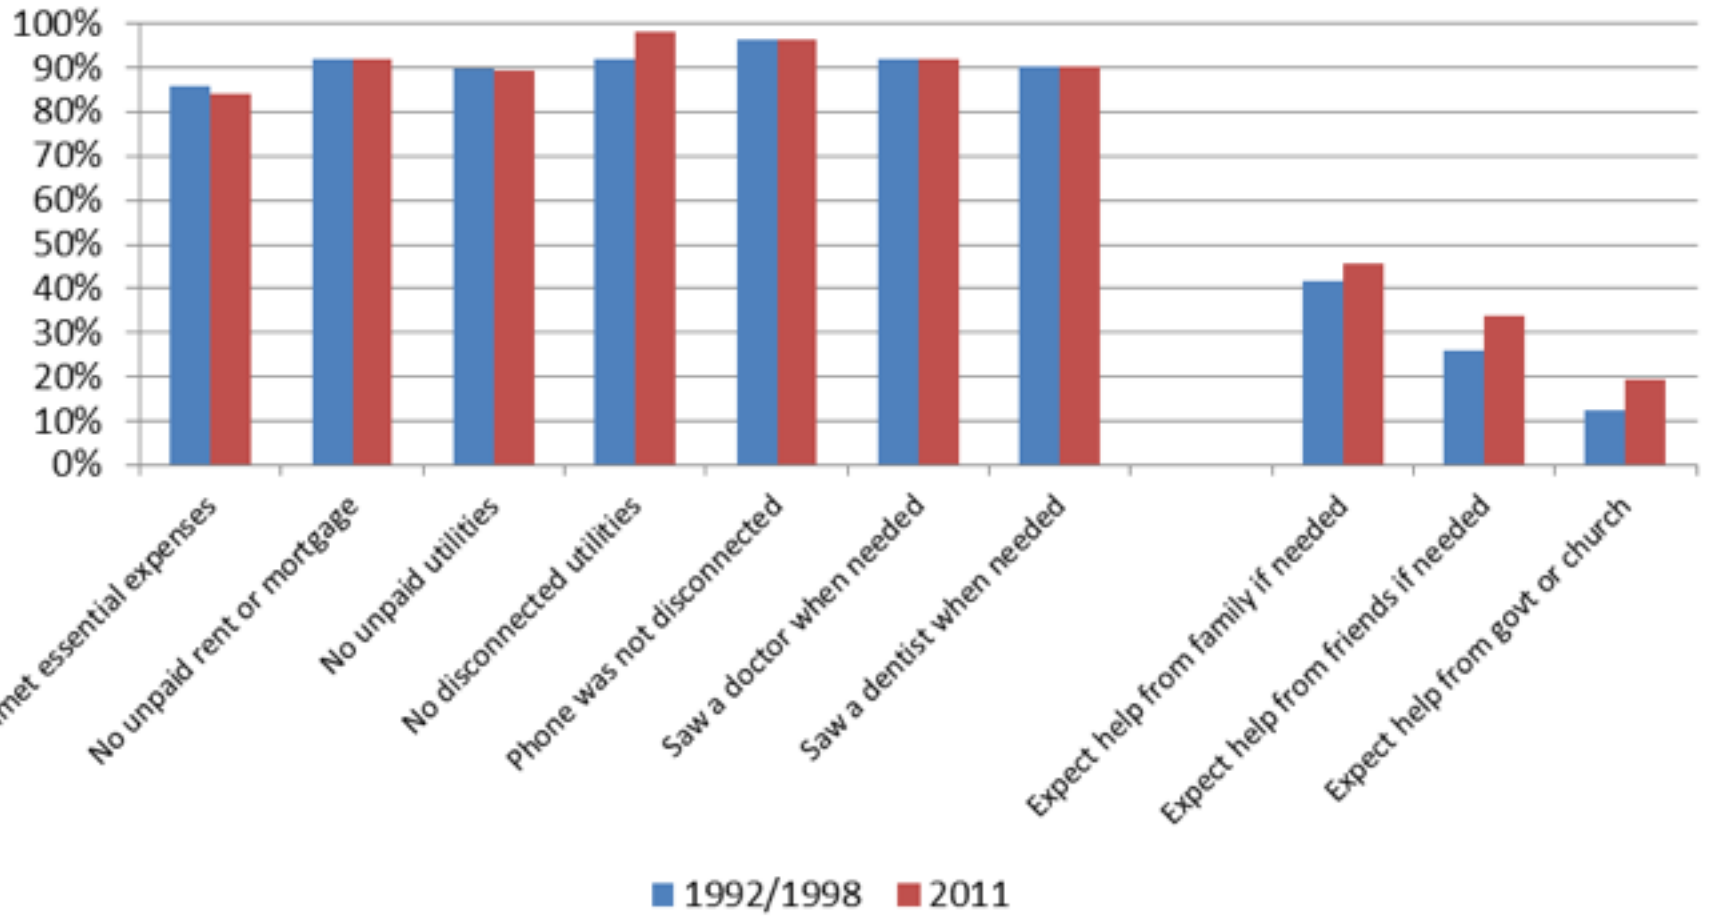

Data source: US Census Bureau

Neighborhood and Community

Data source: US Census Bureau

Basic Needs

Data source: US Census Bureau

Over the past one or two generations

Rate of fire arm deaths

Down 50%

Source: FBI Uniform Crime Reports

Rate of non-fatal firearm crimes

Down 75%

Source: FBI Uniform Crime Reports

Rate of deaths due to war

Down 95%

Source: Uppsala Conflict Data Program

Child labor rates

Down 50%

Source: United Nations Development Programme

Global income inequality

Down 3%

Source: World Bank

Global gender inequality

Down 15%

Source: United Nations Development Programme

Global longevity and education

Up 20%

Source: United Nations Development Programme

Global income

Up 40%

Source: World Bank