FROM THE PRESIDENT’S DESK

Dear Friend of FEE,

Thank you for your generous support of the Foundation for Economic Education. Whether you partner with FEE as a trustee, donor, seminar attendee, alumnus, faculty member, reader, or ambassador, your support made 2015 FEE’s most successful year since our 1946 inception.

Looking back on the results of 2015 and forward to our exciting plans for 2016, I have nothing but thankfulness for your generous support and unwavering faith that we can—and will—make our shared values and the principles of freedom familiar and credible to the rising generation.

With appreciation,

FEE surveys these alumni on their professional success and changing worldviews to determine the impact FEE has had on their lives.

Today, these 100 alumni are using the skills and knowledge they acquired through FEE in the private, public, and non-profit sectors.

“My first FEE seminar was a truly transformative experience. It inspired me to make personal connections with other advocates for liberty and changed my career trajectory. Every experience with FEE is an opportunity to learn something about oneself and the world around us.”

Through our student programs and intellectual content, FEE inspires students to explore how strong character is both necessary in building a free society and reinforced through trade and social cooperation.
In 2015, the Freeman was redesigned into a quarterly, full-color magazine for wider distribution to students.

Each issue features the most popular daily content from FEE.org.

FEE now sends the Freeman to over 7,000 college fraternities and sororities three times a year.

PRAISE from Our Alumni

My time at FEE taught me the intellectual substance needed to defend and promote the ideas of liberty to an audience that may not know of these ideas.

MICHAEL REDCHANSKIY | 2015 Alumnus

I truly appreciated being around people who encouraged me to think harder about the current state of government. The most important lesson was the reminder to never become complacent with one’s surroundings, but to discover how we can work together to make a freer society.

COURTNEY WHITEN | 2015 Alumna

FEE allowed me the opportunity to grow in my understanding of economics and entrepreneurship. I am forever grateful to FEE for giving me the tools to plan a successful future in business.

When your organization has a record year, you can say "THANK YOU" comes first to mind, because this wonderful development is the result of many people. And you are one of them. FEE took off like a rocket in 2015—smashing every target set. Contributions soared, thanks to generous donors. Attendance at seminars eclipsed that of all previous years, thanks to students yearning for inspiration. FEE.org ascended rapidly in popularity, thanks to all those who read and shared our work on social media.

To all our supporters—donors, students, readers—we at FEE want you to know that you are deeply appreciated. Thank you so much for all that you do for FEE and for freedom.
