

Hayek, F.A.

September 24, 1974

My dear Fritz:

How good it was to have been with you in Brussels and to observe your regaining of good health.

The experience in Brussels inspired me to write this little piece entitled "Those Things Called Money."

And I must acknowledge that it was that piece of yours which we published in THE FREEMAN in 1961 entitled "The Uses of Knowledge in Society," which turned me on. Again, thanks, my friend!

Faithfully,

enclosure

Dr. F. A. Hayek
Firmianstr. 17A
A 5020 Salzburg, Austria